Pacer Health Corporation Soars to Number 185 Spot on Hispanic Business 500 List

MIAMI--(BUSINESS WIRE)—June 5, 2007—Hispanic Business Magazine has named Pacer Health Corporation (OTCBB: PHLH-News), an owner-operator of acute care hospitals and psychiatric care facilities in the Southeastern United States, to the 2007 Hispanic Business 500, the magazine's annual ranking of the top 500 Hispanic-owned businesses in the United States for the second consecutive year.

Pacer Health ranked 185th overall in this year's Hispanic Business 500, an increase in Pacer's ranking from 330th overall in 2006. The full list of Hispanic Business 500 companies is available in the June 2007 issue of Hispanic Business Magazine or online at www.hispanicbusiness.com.

"This ranking is an incredible milestone of Pacer and further validates our business model," said Rainier Gonzalez, chairman and CEO of Pacer Health. "The company is honored to receive this ranking by Hispanic Business Magazine and we are pleased with our continued success in the healthcare arena. Our increase from 330th to 185th in the Hispanic Business 500 further exemplifies our rapid growth and achievement as a company."

The 2007 Hispanic Business 500 ranking was compiled by the magazine's research staff and is based upon reported revenues for the calendar year ended December 31, 2006 as provided by authorized representatives of the companies listed therein. Hispanic Business 500-listed companies also must be majority Hispanic-owned.
